

CITY OF MANCHESTER

NEWS OF THE TOWN GLEANED FOR THE DISPATCH READERS.

INTERESTING SERVICES ON SUNDAY—CASES BEFORE THE HUNTINGS AND OTHER COURTS—THE GRAYS SECURE AN ARMY—BLEIDS AND PERSONALS.

man and surgeon, and a friend of Mr. Coehius, arrived here yesterday to consult with Dr. Winston, the physician in charge.

WILL PROBABLY RECOVER.

It was the opinion of both doctors that the wounded man would recover. Dr. Winston says that the circumstances were not remarkable one. At no time did the doctor say he had Coehius's pulse given reason for a belief that the patient would die. Neither the heart nor the pulse had been in sympathy with the wound, it is believed that the doctors agree that the optic nerves have been totally destroyed.

HAD NO TROUBLE.

Mr. J. P. Andre Mottu, of Norfolk, who is a close friend and fellow-countryman of Mr. Coehius, arrived here yesterday to ascertain the extent of the damage.

At the Central Methodist Church, Rev. E. M. Peterson, of Hampton, for four years was its pastor.

There is a very large congregation, and was an eloquent one, and was done in a very forcible manner.

At Clifton Friday Baptist Church, Mr. Mottu occupied by Rev. W. P. Conrad, the Methodist Church, Mr. Conrad gave two excellent sermons to his congregation. The choir rendered some beautiful music in the morning and evening.

The choir has been rehearsing very regularly all the music on this occasion.

Mr. Willard performed exceptionally well. Mr. Willard is the director, and the audience sixteen or more persons, entertainment which will be given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. H.

A Methodist church, by the ladies of the Methodist church, promises to be a great interest.

The floral contribution by seven little girls was a special feature; vocal and instrumental music by some of the best soloists city and Richmond. Miss Farnsworth will recite in her usual style. The entertainment will begin at 8 o'clock next Friday night, and all arrangements being made to accommodate large crowds which is expected to be present.

A number of revival services will commence at the First Avenue Christian Church on Sunday, and by the following Sunday, Mr. Book, who is well known in the congregation, is expected to speak on the sixteenth. Mr. Book has conducted services in that church on several occasions, and always had large audiences, and did much good.

He received a telegram from Indianapolis stating that Mr. Thomas Mathews had a miraculous recovery, and in about twenty minutes had him out of the debris. He was a passenger of a freight train which was running on schedule time, but when it reached a deep cut at a curve it rolled with an engine of a material which was going in an opposite direction. The engine of one of the engines resulted in the injury of four locomotives on the freight had both legs broken, and four of the crew were killed.

WORK OF THE COURTS.

November term of the Huntingdon court commenced yesterday. No grand jury was convened this term, as no cases are to be tried. The same was engaged in arranging the cases for the present term.

The Police Court yesterday John Willis, William Mitchell, S. Fleming, Shaffer, and Thomas Willis were given days in the chain-gang, charged with being tramps. Trials will be held at Manchester "holding" for work.

and the 2d, and no more than three or four weeks Lewis Lee and C. F. Gruber were charged with violating the city ordinance.

Circuit Court of Chesterfield commenced its November term yesterday. A few very important cases are to be decided before Judge Hancock during this term. Among them is the case of a suit against Bedford and several cases between the Richmond and Petersburg railroad company, for damages resulting from a collision.

There was a colored boy on exhibition near the railroad Saturday night, and caused a great deal of curiosity. His measurement was taken by one of our editors. He is 14 years old, and measures across the shoulders 4 feet, 10 inches; across the feet 4 inches; thick, 2 feet 10 inches; the calf, 27 inches. His home is in Petersburg, Va., and for some time past he has offered his services to persons of means to exhibit him with his unusual size, all of which they refused.

PERSONALS AND BRUITS.

Dr. C. N. Friend is stopping with Dr. W. Friend, of this city, to attend conference in Richmond.
